MEASURING THE DISTANCE — While the graph doesn't indicate it, the sixth grade at Wayland Central School is about half way to reaching its goal of $7,500 to cover expenses for a class trip in June to Washington, D. C. The class has been conducting fund raising projects since September and is planning a concert Jan. 29 at 7:30 p.m. featuring the James Family Blue Grass Band. Pictured are (from left) Don Fredericy, Mindy Shepard, Jamie Burke, Shawn Carr, Jennifer Levee, Laura Hartzell, Mandy Sturon and Peggy Wilkinson.

WCS Students Will Travel

Sixth graders at Wayland Central School, studying the U. S. Constitution during this Bicentennial year, in September embarked on a goal to expand their knowledge further by visiting Washington, D. C. to personally view the nation's capital and its history.

While in Washington, students will visit the National Archives, the Smithsonian Institute and Arlington National Cemetery, among other activities.

Teachers — Bonita Herron, John Crossett, Wilma Buckley and Judy Rowley — have been guiding their grade in fund raising projects to reach a goal of $7,500 to finance the trip. Mrs.

Herron said the classes are about half way to their goal. The trip is planned for June 17 and 18.

The main projects to this point, she said, have been a pizza sale and a swim-a-thon. Other projects have included a school newspaper with circulation within the school and weekly cookie sales on Fridays.

Mrs. Herron said planned for this month is a concert at 7:30 p.m. Jan. 29 to be performed by the James Family Blue Grass Band, a popular local musical group.

In February, the sixth grade is to sponsor a student dance at the school. That program will be followed on Apr. 15 with Stan Sweider's Fun Fair, and in the spring, scheduled is a musical production, a tale of Benjamin Franklin, titled "Franklin Franklin" with class members making up the cast.

Shooting Incidents Result in Arrests

Two Wayland men have been charged with criminal mischief in connection with a shooting spree last month that damaged several businesses and vehicles.

Philip E. Kappesser and Cory S. Whitney, both 18, were charged Saturday with one count each of first- and second-degree criminal mischief following an investigation by State Police.

The duo is charged with firing a shotgun at nine cars and trucks parked at McKelvey Ford in Wayland sometime between 2 and 4 a.m. Dec. 12 and fired at a truck in Cohocton and a car in North Cohocton.

Police charge that the two men also shattered a window at the quarter-stick of dynamite and gunned the Robert Miller Co. Inc. farm implement building in North Cohocton.

The vehicles and buildings were not occupied when the incidents took place and no injuries were reported. Estimates of damage were unavailable.

Kappesser and Whitney were arraigned before Wayland Town Justice Lawrence Lorenzo. They were released on their own recognizance pending further court action.

Cub Pack Had Busy Holiday

Members of Wayland Cub Pack 21 were active during December.

Under the leadership of Cubmaster Timothy Doty, assisted by Den Leaders Marj Cosola and Tim Randolph, the group took a trip, performed several service projects, and many members received advancements and awards.

On the 19th, 50 scouts and chaperones visited Letchworth State Park and toured the Mt. Morris Dam. On the way home, they stopped at three homes for the handicapped and spread Christmas cheer by singing carols.

Webelo scouts Jeremiah Randolph and Ken Peterson and their leader, Tim Randolph, delivered several food and gift boxes for the needy for St. Joseph's Church.

The following awards and advancements were acknowledged at the December pack meeting and Christmas party: Joey Davis, Josh Menz, and Chad Bowers received Bobcat badges; and Charlie King, Jeremy Hardy, and Josh Kirkum received Bear badges.

Bear scouts receiving gold and silver arrow points were Ben Noragong, gold and three silver arrows; Steve Ellis, five silver arrows; Tom Cosola, silver arrow; Aaron Emerson, gold and silver arrow; Charlie King, gold arrow; Jeremy Hardy, gold arrow; and Brian Emerson, gold arrow.

Webelo Ken Peterson received a citizen badge and one year and two year service pin. Webelo Jeremiah Randolph earned a citizen badge, artist badge, and one year and two year service pin.

Bear scouts advancing to Webelos den are Ben Noragong, Steve Ellis, Tom Cosola, Aaron Emerson, Mark Pulver, and Mike Congelli.

Self-Help Program Set for Area

Margie Vlasits of Corning will serve as the coordinator of the new Self-Help Clearinghouse for Steuben County.

She has served as Helpline operations manager for the past two years and is the director of Voluntary Services for Menominee Ministries. She is also the Treasurer of the Bath Area Human Services Association and a member of the Steuben County Child Abuse Task Force and Home Economics Committee of Cooperative Extension.

Self-Help is a form of assistance to individuals and families that enhances capabilities for dealing with specific problems or conditions, predicated on the belief that people sharing common problems can reduce stress, increase coping skills and provide practical information in a mutual aid setting.

Alcoholics Anonymous, Gamblers Anonymous, Alzheimers Disease Support Group, Living with Loss, and Overeaters Anonymous are examples of the types of groups that make up the Self-Help movement. The Steuben County Self-Help Clearinghouse will function in conjunction with Helpline to provide information and referral on self-help groups, as well as assisting new groups in forming and providing technical assistance to existing groups.

The Steuben County Self-Help Clearinghouse is a program of the Institute for Human Services.

Further information is available by calling the Helpline number which will be used for the Clearinghouse—in the Wayland area—1-800-346-2211.

About a week after the funeral, when the gratuities have been written, the relatives have gone home, and the friends and neighbors have gone back to work, Life is supposed to be back to "Normal". This is when the shock wears off and the loneliness hits. It's now that you need to know you're thought of. A nice little green plant, a couple of flowers, a card or even a phone call—especially at supertime would mean so much.
Funeral Flowers are lovely; But they're for the living, not the dead. Maybe because I lost my Mom a year ago at this time, I understand how the grievant feels. It's nice to know you're being thought of.
